HOW TO READ THIS

One play = one two-hour open play session. · Plays and sessions are per adult, not per household. · Beyond your plan, any session is $7.50. Non-members pay $15. · 10% off for first responders, teachers, and veterans, honor system, stacks with Legacy.

THE CAPS — 220 playing adults total · 66 of those Unlimited · 50 Legacy · first 75 on the $29.99 Single Partial rate. Children do not count toward the 220.

If both founding rates fill, 125 of the 220 adult spots are gone in the first month, leaving 95 adult spots and 16 Unlimited memberships for everything else. When a cap is reached that membership stops being sold and people join a waiting list. We will not quietly raise the number when the money looks good.

Why: four courts hold a certain number of people before a session stops being fun and you spend the evening waiting for a game. We would rather cap the club than sell you that evening.

Two memberships open Saturday August 15 — Legacy for people who play a lot, Single Partial for people who do not. Both rates lock for as long as your membership stays active. Both close September 15, when Legacy ends and Single Partial rises to $39.99.

The other five open when the 50 Legacy sell out or on August 29, whichever comes first. All memberships activate September 1 — nothing is charged for August.

Legacy annual is $659.89 — pay for the year up front and one month is free, against $719.88 paid monthly. That is less than the $700 annual price of Single Unlimited for the same access. The free month is on the annual payment only; monthly Legacy is $59.99 with no free month.

Rates are locked on every membership. What September 15 changes is which rate you can still lock — Legacy closes, and Single Partial moves to $39.99 for anyone joining after.

You can move up from Single Partial to Legacy while both are open, but the $29.99 lock is forfeited and does not come back. Take the one that fits how you actually play.
